“ I find myself thinking alot lately about my family and extended family and the memories of my childhood. I especially remember christmas eve's at Aunt Nanny's house, shooting pool in the garage, jumping off the stairs and being chased by Uncle Bob in the back yard. Thank you Aunt Nanny, Uncle Rob, Terry and to my family for giving me the opportunity to create such memories. My thoughts and prayers are with you all as Heaven receives one more special angel!##imported-begin##John Biship##imported-end##

“ Terry, I'm so sorry for your loss. I'm still in total disbelief of her passing. I just saw her 1 week ago and she was so excited and making her usual plans on making fudge for us at Christmas. Nancy was not only a patient she was our dear friend and we will miss her very much. We love you Nancy. I will miss your beautiful smiling face. Your friends at the Cardiovascular Group will miss you very much.##imported-begin##Cheryl Crowe##imported-end##

“ My heart is heavy as I know so is yours. Nanny was a very special lady to all of us. I would call her most every Sunday morning....she would talk about her family and there was no doubt in my mind how much she loved all of you. You were all a big part of a life well lived. She is gone....but I know her spirit is within all of you....forever. I so much wish I had made it back to Georgia within the last few years for Thanksgiving or Christmas...just could not. I very much loved Nanny...and this is a difficult time for all of us. I pray to God he provides comfort where it is so desperately needed. You are in my prayers.##imported-begin##Karen Jackson##imported-end##
