May she rest in peace. She was always an Angel. And her memory with her Father comforted in His arms.

May God bless you all as you heal.

“ Mr. Howard and Mrs. Teresa my heart goes out to you. I cannot believe she is gone. I have so many fond memories of us during our high school years always hanging out and spending the night at the house on Cheryl St. Nancy was an amazing woman and great friend. We had lost touch over the years, but had recently found one another on facebook. I know she is happy and pain free in heaven. If ya'll need anything, please do not hesitate to let me know.##imported-begin##Jaime Spear##imported-end##

“ Howard and Terry,

There is no way to express how heartbroken we are in the loss of your precious Nancy. I had reconnected with her on facebook and was so surprised and excited when I received a friend request from her. I have the cutest picture of her in our wedding album reaching to catch my bouquet, along side all the older girls. She was probably only 4 or 5 years old. Please know how much we are praying that the Lord would comfort you, that He would carry you, that His peace would flow over you like a river! What a comfort to know that if Nancy could not remain here with us, that she is with our Heavenly Father, seeing Him face to face! Experiencing unspeakable joy!

With Heartfelt love,

“ Nancy and I met about 17 years ago when we were being homeschooled. We were close b/c we understood each other b/c we were both sick and in a lot of pain. I spent so many nights at her house. The stories I could tell you would crack you up. Her parents probably thought I was wild. Especially when I turned 16 and we could do even more. I was close to her parents, cute doggies, and her now deceased papa. I moved to Birmingham a few months after I turned 16 and her dad met my mom in Macon and Nancy spent a few weeks here with me which was so sweet of her. We kept in touch through letters and my visits back 2 or 3 times a year. We had lost touch when she married EJ. Then we started talking again. When she moved to atl we tried quite a few times to meet up but since she couldn't drive it never worked out but she was always the most encouraging person to me. She was so happy despite what happened to her. WE wrote each other encouraging cards and called each other. I hadn't talked to her in about a month. I know she is happy now dancing with God in Heaven and with my friend Erin I lost earlier this year. I wish I could be at the service but I don't think I can b/c I just had surgery. I have left a message on her parents number but I would appreciate it if someone would call me and let me know what happened to her and I will let everyone in Savannah and on know. My number is (205) 807-8831. II Corinthians 5:6-8,17##imported-begin##Heather Rowland##imported-end##

“ Teresa, Please know how my heart breaks for you. You have been and will continue to be, in my prayers. I can be a good listener if you ever need to just talk. I can only promise you that, eventually, God's grace is sufficient. We have all been wanting to do something, anything, for you, please let us know what we can do and it will be done. Please know that He is right there with you, I know He is the one holding you up. Lean on Him. Pat###imported-begin###Pat Watkins###imported-end##
