

Nancy "Maggie" Pittman

August 25, 1929 - March 21, 2010

PITTMAN- Nancy Magaleen "Maggie" Pittman passed away March 21, 2010 at home surrounded by family. She was born on August 25, 1929 to Russell Bowen and Ludie Swords Bowen. In 1948, she married J.O. Pittman who she shared 56 years of marriage. She was a lifelong resident of Walton County. She was preceded in death by her husband, J.O. Pittman; son, James Pittman, daughter Sheryl Golden and all her brothers and sisters. She is survived by her daughters and sons-in-law: Patricia & Herb Nichols of Loganville and Joyce & Gene Ellis of Monroe; sister-in-law: Betty Joe Bowen and grandchildren: Melinda Castels, Bobby Ellis, Jennifer Entrekin, Andrew Golden, Matthew Golden, David Jackson, Marty Jackson, Nancy Lancaster, Shannon Tittle and Penny Wilson; several great grandchildren, one great great grandson, and her beloved dog Mollie. Mrs. Pittman was known by many names. Her husband called her Peggy, her children called her momma, her siblings called her Maggie. She touched the hearts of everyone whether it's her homemade biscuits, pear preserves, vegetable soup or her gentle soothing personality. She spent her life as a homemaker. She enjoyed taking care of her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Her days were spend doing the things she enjoyed gardening, quilting, canning, and spending time with her family. She was a member of New Hope United Methodist Church in Between, GA. She had a close relationship with her savior Jesus Christ which she shared with her family and friends. As a loving and caring Christian, she saw the good in everyone. Visitation will be on
