“ I met Nancy and Harriett September 2011 at Journey's Inn in Logansville, Ga. As I was going in to eat, they were sitting outside on the porch in the rocking chairs. I notice them for some reason. When I finish eating, I said to myself that if they were still outside, I am going to talking with them. They were and I begin ministering to Nancy when I found out her illness. She had such a beautiful spirit and she receive me as well as Harriett with an open heart. This was a special day with two sisters and I hated to depart from them. I felt so much love from the two sisters. I do believe that Nancy was ready and her spirit is now with Jesus Christ. No more suffering for her. I hope to always remember Nancy beautiful smile and her heart full of love for family. She was someone special and for me to meet for the first time. Read what Paul wrote to Timothy "II Timothy 4:6-8". Love you all!##imported-begin##Carolyn A. Jordan##imported-end##
