“ I am so sorry for your loss. Although I do not know you personally I have been there. I lost my mother 9 yrs ago. Prayer and time was of great help. and enouragement from friends. This knowlege also helped. Jesus said in John 5:28,29, Do not marvel at this, the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come on out. Yes millions now dead will live again here on earth and have the prospect of remaining forever under peaceful paradasaic conditions. Psalms 37:10,11, Verse II, The meek ones themselves, shall inherit the earth and find their exquisite delight in the abudance of peace. “ I was a classmate of Nancy at Hapeville High School. I remember Nancy was always upbeat and smiling or laughing. She was a cheerleader and I remember even when our Basketball Team lost, she would often come up to me and tell me what a great game I played (even it was not the case). Nancy was a fun person to be around in school. Her memories will always be there for all that knew her.##imported-begin##Jim Baker##imported-end##

“ Nancy and I met in the ninth grade at Hapeville High School. For the next four years she made me laugh a lot! Nancy was always so full of life and endless energy. She lived in the moment and looked with eager anticipation at what was ahead. Nancy inspired those of us fortunate enough to have known her to enjoy life to the fullest. There are no words to the family that can ease the pain of her passing, but know that the people who were lucky enough to have been touched by Nancy will remember her with a smile as we remember the good times.##imported-begin##Jan (Lathum) Bolien##imported-end##
