

Naomi Grace Sherman

June 23, 1926 - April 3, 2015

SHERMAN, Naomi Grace Sherman a.k.a Mother, Grandma and GG, peacefully departed this earth on April 3, 2015. She was born on June 23, 1927, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Naomi was a woman who always lived life to its fullest. In her earlier days, she was a nurse in the psychiatric ward or as she would say "The Nut House", like One who flew over the Coo-coo's Nest. She was also a nanny to a few different families and then worked at Publix on the weekends handing out samples. Naomi was appreciated and loved by all. She enjoyed traveling and living in a number of places from New Jersey, to Connecticut, to Florida to Georgia. Aside from spending time with her family, including her grandchildren and her great grandchildren, she loved to gamble- including playing slots and bingo, spending time with friends, cruising and reading books such as Fifty Shades of Grey, all three of them. Naomi was predeceased by her husband, Robert Sherman in 2009, and is survived by her five sons and one daughter as well as several grandchildren and great grandchildren and other friends and loved ones. A service celebrating her life will be held at White Chapel Memorial Gardens in Duluth, at 2:00 PM, Friday, April 10, 2015. Thumbs Up GG, may she go with the strength she instilled in all of us and soar in the light. RIP. Tim Stewart Funeral Home: 2246 Wisteria Drive, Snellville, GA 30078. 770-979-5010.
