“ Nathan was the sweetest human being in the world, I am blessed to have been his mother and we were very close . My heart is so broken and I will never be the same again. I have a hole in my heart, a void that will never be filled until I see him in heaven again. Nathan, I am so proud of you, you gave it your very best, but the drug was too strong for you. I forgive you, I understand addiction and I NEVER GAVE UP ON YOU, NEVER. I prayed for you even before you were born and loved you from the beginning. You are awesome and I will never let you go, ever. Your in the arms of Jesus and I prayed to him that he would give you a hug for me. Your not suffering anymore and I know I get to see those beautiful teeth in that beautiful smile someday. Save me a place, I'll be with you someday. Can't wait to see what you have been drawing while I wait to come to be with you.

Nathan, you have so many friends, you would have been blown away by how many people gave their last respects to you. You exhibited love to all and always. God how I miss you Nathan. I love you billions. Rest in Peace my son, you are free, free indeed and are in paradise with the one who made you that way.

Love Eternal
