

Nathan F. Parker

November 24, 1976 - February 26, 2007

Nathan F. Parker, age 31, of Woodstock, died Monday, February 26th from a chronic heart condition. Funeral Service will be held 11 A.M. Thursday, March 1, 2007 in the Chapel of Tapp/Tim Stewart Funeral Home with Lee Shannon conducting the service. Burial will follow at Broadlawn Memorial Gardens. Nathan was an accomplished interior design painter who had a passion for rebel country music, second only to his passion for his beloved family. Those fortunate to know him knew that he never said an unkind word about anyone. He had a strong faith in God and was a practicing spiritual being. His ability to forgive and love was remarkable as was his sense of humor, and we will miss him terribly. Nathan is survived by his mother, Joy LeCraw, his father Steven Parker, half brother, Christian Parker, grandmother, Josephine LeCraw, step-mother Karen Parker, step-brother Zac Garmon, step-father Fred McCord, first cousins, Hollon Yarborough and Jay Bedgood, aunts, Linda LeCraw Craig, Nance LeCraw Wolff, and Anne LeCraw Yarborough. The family will receive friends Wednesday, February 28 from 6 to 9 P.M. at Tapp/Tim Stewart Funeral Home and Crematory, 201 Morningside Drive, Buford, Georgia 30518. 770-945-9345. “ My condolences to Nathan's Family. Nathan and I were best of friends throughout middles school. We lost contact after I moved to Arizona, but I'll always remember all the good times we had growing up.##imported-begin##Justin Larkin##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for your loss. He was a good guy. From the photo he looks fantastic. He turned out to be a good looking fella. Last time I saw him he had what I could only describe as “pretty” long blond hair. I met him when he was 13 and I was 16 in front of his parent’s home in Mountain Park. As usual skateboarders just seem to meet at sometime or another. We just skated together with the rest of the group and sometimes I would sell him skateboard stuff at Go With the Flow when he came in with another group and I was working. We weren’t close but I would have considered him a friend in any situation.

I can only echo the sentiments stated here that I feel for your loss. It would have been great to have had another chance meeting with him. He did have a great mischievous smile and that will be missed. Best of luck in your travels Nathan, may your almighty watch over you and your family.##imported-begin##Tony & Kimberly East##imported-end##

“ To the beloved family that I have been blessed to get to know ...
Aunt Nancy this is for you!

*I need to say goodbye although you're with me.
I stand beside your grave, yet you are here.
I miss you terribly and hope you miss me,
But when I turn to you, you're always near.
I talk to you as though you lived within me,
Not changed but simply moved in from outside.
I know each day you must a little leave me,
But here, as always, you must be my guide.
You were and are and will be, just as ever,
In many minds and hearts, not only mine.
No physical event can such love sever;
Death is a dimension, not a line.
And so goodbye does not mean you are gone:
So long as I still love you, you live on.##imported-begin##Carol

“ To the family and friends of Nathan:

Although my words are of little consequence, my warmest condolences go out to you all this morning. As I read the paper this morning, the last thing I expected was to learn of the passing of friend.

I have known Nathan since he was about 12 years old. We met at my house with a bunch of other guys skating the quarterpipe that my dad and I made earlier that day. I will always remember it, because I had to stop Kevin Hobgood from bullying Nathan. Throughout middle school and high school, even though we were in different grades, we ended up together in detention or ISS. Normally, I might think of these times of punishment as improper to bring up, but not in this case. Nathan made those times bearable and we had fun--even when we were not supposed to!

Though the strides of our lives moved in separate directions a while ago, it was always a joy to bump into him, randomly, as occurred from time to time. I cannot think of him without picturing his greeting, he will always have that smile on his face when I go to shake his hand.##imported-begin##Michael McPherson##imported-end##
