“ *Hi,
I remember your mom as my 7th grade math teacher in Webster City. She smiled a lot and was one of the nicest teachers. I was sorry to hear of her passing and of your loss.*

“ Kay, Ann, and Jeanette,
Was thinking of your mother last night and our trip to Europe nearly 31 years ago. Have just read the news of her passing. Such a good person and interesting to be around. Best to all of you and your families.

“ Dear Ann, Kay and Jeanette:

My thoughts and prayers are with you and your families. I remember your Mother fondly from her teaching days at Washington Central. I enjoyed my visit with you this past summer and the time we spent recalling your Mother and her later years. Please know that I am thinking of you and your loss.
