“ I barely knew "Nick" but I doubt he knew me, although I've never truly knew him as a friend his humorous heart and kind judgements would make me smile , never truly knowing "Nick" I wish I have got to know him...From walking the same halls of Five Forks Middle to riding same bus for the pass few years and from taking those 1st steps to high school together. Nick was a wonderful guy he, and his family are in my heart a great deal. For time that I knew him it was a awful feeling to know that he is gone I would suspect this to happen to him " My Heart Falls and My spirit Crys";
I miss you Nick and it would have been a Great Deal If I knew better. May your spirit live on, though the blood shall perish.....With Love Azanae E. Bond-Brooks##imported-begin##Azanae Bond-Brooks##imported-end##

“ Nick, you were a really fun classmate with all the hilarious jokes and funny comments. You always knew how to make someone smile, whether it be your friends or classmates. I'll never forget you for giving me the nickname "Pocahontas", you were even like an older brother to me. I will miss you Nick, and I'll always remember the smile I see from you whenever I walk into class. We love you, and may God fly you endlessly into the heavens with a smile that never washes away.##imported-begin##Aaliyah Dudley##imported-end##
