“ Nina was my hero! It was beautiful to watch her with Dustin. She was a gentle and loving mother. I feel blessed To have known her. I said to her once, "Dustin is such a handsome young man". She looked at him, smiled and said," he is isn't he." She will be missed by so many of us!

“ *Nina was such a caring mother and person.
Nina talked to me and helped me so much much when my daughter had seizures. She made sure I knew that she knew how I felt and was there for me. Rest in peace Nina and her son. May God bless you and keep you. We all love you.*

“ Sending prayers to Nina and Dustin's family. Please know that Nina was a wonderful neighbor and will be greatly missed. Each night as we pass their house on our way home they are lifted up in thoughts and prayers. It's hard to imagine not seeing her and Dustin out in the yard and can only imagine the pain of loss you are feeling. If we can help please let us know - we are 3 doors up from Nina's place.

“ Nina was clearly a dedicated, caring mother to her beloved Dustin. When I last saw her she doted over Dustin and sought to meet his every need, protect him and enhance his happiness. She must have been such a strong person, as is characteristic of parents with a special needs child. For those of us grieving our loss of Nina and Dustin this loss can remind us to be kind and caring because every person is fighting a difficult inner battle.

“ I met Nina through the karate studio she attended with Dustin about 2 1/2 years ago. We spoke often and I was always so touched at what a caring and devoted Mom she was to Dustin. She always had a smile and such pride in his accomplishments. My daughter was lucky enough to get assist Dustin from time to time and always looked forward to it. Nina was a wonderful Mother and a kind person. They will both be missed. May they rest in peace.

“ I met Nina and Dustin through the special needs community. I am so very sorry to hear about the loss of both of them. I know that Nina loved Dustin with all of her heart and soul and she was a fierce advocate for him. That is what I will most remember about Nina. I think what I will most remember about Dustin is his sweet nature and his soulful eyes. It was fun to watch him play Miracle League baseball. May they both rest in peace.
