“ Dear Nora,
We have been best friends & sisters for so many years and I will forever cherish all of those memories.
Our friendship was and will always be a one of a kind and I will cherish you and our friendship forever as you were such a big part of my life,
We have been on so many great adventures together and we've shared many laughs and many glasses of wine together.
I will miss you very much and love you with all my heart my best friend! You will live in my heart and thoughts forever!
Not only were you my best friend and sister, your family also treated me as part of your family as well and I so enjoyed watching the grandchildren grow and Darlene was always a great hostess and alot of fun when she she joined her Mom and I on our journies.
Nora, this is not goodbye, its "till we meet again" and we will because we still have more adventures and exploring left to do!!
I love you my best friend
Love,
Maisie

“ I got the call this morning that you had gone away , I said were this time the Rockies the Caymans, Italy or Spain maybe back to the Appalachian trails where your feet had wondered many times or maybe just down to Florida all the way to the Keys were you had had us as guest and showed us such a good time I heard you liked the Red Woods and the Canyons and the light houses of Maine but no not today you have went on a journey we can't follow you today . but I know you will make sure all the trails are safe and routes are clear and the views are spectacular so when we all meet again, your smile that would always light up a room will tell us we have made it to are ultimate destination. “ *What a dynamo! This lady could out do any woman - any age! That alone is an inspiration.
Thankfully, my last visit with her consisted of a night of good card playing, terrific conversations and lots of laughs! How lucky I am to have such a good memory to add with countless more!
My brothers and I will truly miss her and extend our deepest love to Darrell, Darlene, Kell and the kids.

Nora, it was my lucky day to meet you at the bank many, many years ago! The fun our gang had over the years, the cruises, the parties at each others houses, the Trivial Pursuit games (I always hoped you were on my team because you were so smart), celebrating birthdays, holidays, any excuse for a party or to go out to eat. I respected you so much, such a classy lady, who would expect your DIY expertise? Your decorating skills were fantastic. I will miss you so much and I so regret this happening to you. Goodbye for now, I'll see you on the other side! Much love, Amy
