“ she was a friend and employer for almost 24 years, and my landlord for 2 years before that. she was a compassionate lady, who cared about family and friends and had a great love and compassion for children everywhere. it was a honor to work for her and have her for a friend. we were able to put family first and work second, I know no other company that does this. we will miss her and she will live on in our hearts and memories, , all my love and prayers to her family.##imported-begin##mary blacksmith##imported-end##
