“ Bryan where do I begin?

I don't beleive I can put into words how I am feeling at the present time,But I do know one thing, I am going to miss you so very much. I have been going back in my mind to the days when all of you kids were young,and so very full of energy,there was no sickness,just a few skined kness and a maybe a broken bone along the way,it really seems such a short time ago.The streets were full of little boys running up and down the road from one house to the other.You all were so happy,not a single care in the world.No worries of any kind,no worries of things to come,no time to think of the things you were going to do, or the things you were going to be faced with in your days and years to come.But all too soon your childhood days were gone, and your days of being a man were upon you. All too soon did they come,and like in your days of being a young boy and a young man,you still (protected).

You were always the one who would look out for, and protect the other younger children in our family,But not only did you take up for and protect your family,(cousins,brothers,and sisters) you were always there for anyone who needed help,or needed to be protected.That was the kind of young man, and later on grew up to be the type of man you were.Always ready and able to protect and care for others,not one time, ever putting yourself first.I wonder!!!was that really a good thing in the end?

Was there really enough time for you?

I'm sad that your gone,really sad,I know your with our LORD,He has called for you, and now you have entered the kingdom of heaven where there will be peace. There will be no more pain for you.

There will only be for you my dear nephew, peace, health,And joy.

So walk those streets lined with gold with our Lord.

Sit by his side and wait for me.

I Love you,and I will miss you.

Your Aunt

“ God has great things for all of us whether we are here on earth or in Heaven. Only God has his reasons for taking people we love from us sooner than later. In the end, we will find out those reasons and we will understand them then. God Bless Cindy and the kids and may God and Steve watch over them. As long as we have memories in our hearts, we never forget what has passed.##imported-begin##Sabrina Kruger##imported-end##

“ You were a fine man here on earth. You helped all you could. Although you left all the ones you loved and loved you, along with all your true friends that cherished your friendship, you will never be forgotten. I know that you will be with God and He had a reason for taking you so soon. We are all sadden with your leaving us, but in the end is where it will counts. We all will be reunited and we will see you one day in the Heavens above.##imported-begin##Jeff Kent##imported-end##

“ Thank you, Steve, for showing Cindy what love and life should be like. Thank you for being the dad you didn't have to be. The stories I've heard about your impact on your fellow officers, friends, and community are a testament to the life you lived. But the influence you had on your wife and children will mold how they live their lives forever. And though Emily is too young now to understand, she will grow up hearing those same stories and she too will be influenced by the man you have been. We should all strive to leave such a legacy.##imported-begin##Lisa Moore##imported-end##
