“ All I can say is Oh My GOD! Dupervil has been on my mind for awhile now so I could not find him on Myspace nor Facebook so I googled him and that is how I found out about his death, I was Panosky's roommate in Fort Stewart, GA and I am so torn up right now I am at a loss for words. Man! this is really something, I guess when I do move to Connecticut I'll never be able to get your opinion on which is the best area to live. Wow my army battle buddy is gone. Whew! this is really hard for me to take in. may God bless the Dupervil family and his kids###imported-begin##John H Davis II###imported-end##

“ To the Dupervil family: I would like to express my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. It was my honor to be one of his nurses during his hospital stay at the Nashville VA. My prayers are with you during your time of sorrow. Just know that God is in control and that he does not make mistakes. If there is anything I can do for you, please let me know.##imported-begin##Derrick Ellis##imported-end##

“ To the family of Panosky Dupervil;
I've known "Sky" for a short time, but he was a good friend to my husband and my sister. He was always in a good mood and a pleasure to be around. A very nice person to have known. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.
Gone but not forgotten.##imported-begin##Genise Carter-Rutledge##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss, Please accept my deepest sympathy. When our loved ones die it is only natural that we want to be with them again. We have a hope that that will happen. The Bible teaches that many who have died will be resurrected. Jesus promised that "those in the memorial tombs will... come out." (John 5:28,29.) The resurrected ones will have the opportunity to live forever on a a paradise earth. (Luke 23:43)##imported-begin##D Richmond##imported-end##
