My husband Steve and I met Tim and Pat at FBA. When I reflect on my dear friend Pat, she will be remembered by her constant smile and the cute way she laughed! She would always look for the positives in any situation, was a prayer warrior, I never heard her complain, was an complimentary person, and had so much compassion for everyone. This past Christmas i was so touched when she had sewn me a beautiful quilt which was so thoughtful to know she personally made this for me! You will be surely missed dearest friend and look forward to see you again!
