“ Pat was my first cousin. When I was little, Raymond, Betty, Judy, and their parents lived across the street from us. When Raymond died, I saw Pat and held her hand. She asked how I was. I answered, “Sad.” She said, “Don’t be sad.” This was Pat: concerned for another person. She was comforting me when I should have been comforting her. She was a great lady. Condolences to all my Dalton cousins.

Pat was my first cousin and pen pal. I loved her very much and went to see her as much as I could before COVID. I know she loved bumblebees, reading a good romance or magazines, but most of all loved all her family very much. I am so sorry for the families loss but Heaven gained another Angel!
