“ I met Pat Lentini during our CDI (Clinical Documentation training session conducted at Emory Midtown in 2008. Pat was a respectful loving and supportive friend to me. I still remember that day when she saw me overwhelmed with CDI /coding language , rules and guidelines she came to me , patting on my shoulder, and asked “Can I help you? You look lost!!”. Yes she was always there as a helping hand to me and our department, with education . She encouraged me to take CCDS certification and was so excited to hear the result. Once I told Pat “ you are an M D (Make Difference)in others life !Yes pat , You really did make a difference in our life at work place. You will be missed physically, but your sweet memories will remain for ever!

I first met Pat during our CDI training at Emory in 2007 and worked with her since. Pat was a good friend and talented coworker who always was ready to lend a helping hand or provide a supportive word. Her love for her family, her consideration for her coworkers and her kind nature was always evident and while they will be sorely missed in our daily lives, we will cherish those memories always.

I'll always remember my cousin Pat as a sweet, kind girl with not a bad word to say about anyone. It sounds like she was the same kind of adult. My thoughts are with Tony and the boys, and with her siblings. Love, Celeste Williams-Hughes
