“ Pat was my friend from elementary school, and she lived on the same street as some other dear friends. We rode the bus together for many years. I ran into her at Mall of Georgia a couple of years ago (she was walking the mall) and it was so good to catch up. My sincere sympathy to Gary and the family, and all of Pat's loved ones. She loved cats like I love dogs, so that is very special to me. I am sorry I could not attend the service. Prayers of comfort, Nancy Pace Coker

“ Gary, I have known you & your Beautiful Pat since you were children. As you grew up together, & eventually married, I can truthfully say you had one of the most meaningful & true marriages I have ever known. Gary, Pat will ALWAYS be right there with you in your heart. Remember You are loved. Sylvian English

“ Mrs. Pat was one of my favorite firefighter wives! I will always remember her love & support when Aunt Doris Banks passed away! Norma Robinson & Pat were the only other loved ones in the room when I was holding Aunt Doris’s hand as she took her last breath. Pat held me as I went limp being taken into the hall! I am forever grateful for that. I’m so heartbroken to hear the news of her passing, I truly loved her! Mr. Gary please know that you & your family are very much in my thoughts and prayers!
