“ I was so sadden by the loss of Patsy. Her life touched many. I spent most of my youth with Pasty at Buford High School and at Buford First United Methodist Church. Church choir from elementary to high school was a blessing, hearing Patsy's voice in our performances made us all strive to do better. I always loved her piano and flute performances. Her students were blessed to have had such a talented and kind teacher! In my heart she is that beautiful, kind, talented, full of personality young woman with whom I grew up. Her memories will always be close to me. May God bless her family with the love Pasty gave others in time of need.

“ Your daughter Jessica was inspired by your strength. Your grace and integrity. Your beauty and grace shone thru with dignity. It was a blessing to meet you share the kids birthdays with you and join in the strength of your family. God bless you all. I am captivated by Jessica's spirit and unique perspective. She could help many people who have family members with long term illness. God bless you all.

“ Thomas ,after you called me and left a message, I returned your call, but you were not available. I then looked on-line and saw Patsy's obituary. I am so sorry for your loss. I remember her so well in college-the nights we talked late, her effervescence, her love of music, and her compassion. I remember her bringing in a squirrel in a cage to take care of because he was injured. She was a kind person, and I am certain her passing is so hard for all of you. Please know my thoughts and prayers are for all of you. I wish you peace and comfort.

“ Patsy and I competed in high school literary events, I for Dacula and Patsy for Buford. We started out as vocal rivals and later became teaching peers in the Gwinnett County School system. As music teachers, we worked together on writing what may have been Gwinnett County's first music curriculum for middle and elementary school. She was a lovely, adorable person, and my life was made fuller, because Patsy entered my life through music.

“ Thomas, Jessica, Amy and your families,

You know I'm with you during this time. The video tribute was beautiful to watch. I have very vivid memories of most of those times in her life. One of my earliest memories involves watching her compete in one her pageants on TV (perhaps Miss Georgia, can't remember which one). I remember being so proud of her and telling my friends that I had a real beauty queen in my family who was on TV. She gave my sister and me a gift that will last a life time. She was our piano teacher when Tina and I were young, and we both still play today. She was always so patient with me as a young pianist. I laugh when I go back and look at the markings on my piano music that I still have. I can see her frustrations with me, but she never made me feel bad.

She was struck so young with MS, but she handled her illness with the grace and dignity that only God can provide. What a testament of her faith. What a legacy of love she has created. She will be missed by all.

Love and prayers, your loving cousin, Tammy and family

“ Our Patsy was a lovely lady and a dear friend. Whenever her health took a down-turn and we'd visit to cheer her up, we would realize as we left that she had cheered us up! She had a close relationship with God, and never lost her faith. OR her sense of humor! She and Thomas lived the most beautiful love story throughout their long marriage, even though Patsy was immobilized more than 30 years by MS. We miss her, but take great joy in knowing that she is in heaven enjoying her now-perfect body.
