I wish you were here still I have done so much since you left. The same year you died I went to graystone church in December and been going ever since. I'm now in 8th grade, I have also made one really good best friend named Samantha Whatley, and started playing baseball but I'm recovering from a broken pinky right now but most importantly I gave my life to Christ in mid 2024. One crazy thing is that you still come across my mind at least 2 times a week. I wish I understood back then but I was too young. I wish we could go fishing one more time and maybe you could have taught me how to hunt just something to spend more time with you. And anything crazy thing is sometimes on Sundays in church you just come on my mind. I wish you were still here. There so much more we could have done but I didn't understand back then. We all miss you and wish you were still here. I'll see you again one day but until then have fun with Jesus.
