I met Paul in high school and he was a good friend, then worked with him at DeKalb Fire Service in two stations, and remained friends even after retirement. The last time I saw him was at Northern Tool in Snellville a few years back, caught up on old times and discussed our life and trust in Jesus our Lord. I am so thankful to know he trusted Jesus as his savior and Lord too! We will see one another again in Heaven! May God bless and comfort the family, friends and loved ones in this time of loss! Remembering the blessings of God and Paul's love of you and our Lord will help, he was a good man, friend, leader and brother! I remember when Michelle was born, Paul's happiness and how much she is loved. God will fill the void with memories of his life and love, until we meet again in Heaven, because we have trusted Christ Jesus finished work at Calvary's cross. Hallelujah! RIP my brother Paul! Your work is done!
