“ Our most sincere sympathy to the family. Aunt Polly will be missed. Today, September 7, 2015 we found out she was with the Lord. Our regrets are belated but still sincere. Betty Jean Wascom called her sister-in-law faithfully but was lost when contact was lost. Our hearts go out to all of the family. Sincerely The Betty Jean Wascom family (John Wascoms sister).

“ To all the family of Aunt Pauline, I will always remember her smiling face and genuine heartfelt emotions that could so easily be discerned when in her company. Hers was a life filled with both adversity and triumph, and yet she was strong throughout each trial that came and still she could smile!! Thank you Aunt Pauline for making my life more complete for having known you from my childhood. To especially my cousins who are left to carry on .., I bid you God Speed as I share in your sorrow and loss at this unexpected time of her passing on to life eternally. Sending my love for you with a prayer of hope to see her again in the after-life that Christ has given and prepared.

kindest regards and Best Wishes, Ronnie Posey
