“ Dear Gerry, I am so very sorry to hear about Paul's passing. He was a good man and a hell of a guy: and I have some great memories of the two of you.

Paul had a gruff exterior buyt his heart was soft and mushy, Well, he, Pat (John's wife) and all the others we have known are up there playing cards and having a good old time. My prayers are with you my friend. I will have a mass said for Paul in my church, have one said at your church, too.##imported-begin##Kathie Kyczynski, Toms River, NJ##imported-end##

“ Dear Gerry: I am so sorry to hear about Paul's sudden and untimely death. Thank you for writing to tell me The death of a loved one is always hert wrenching. However, take comfort in St. Paul's teaching that all who believe in Christ as our Savior are among the saints. We are taught that it is good to pray for the dead, but as we pray for Paul, let us ask him to also pray for us. The loving bond is not broken, but is merely changed till we once again live together in the Lord. My heartfelt love and sympathy, P>S> I will offer four masses for the happy repose of his soul and three for you ad your intentions.##imported-begin##Fr. “ Dear Gerry: As I drove to work this AM, for some strange reason, I was thinking of Paul & you & wondered how things were going. I was amazed and distressed to receive your note later in the day. My deepest condolences on Paul's death. I know how close you were and how much you will miss him. I was happy to be Paul's cardiologist all those years and guide him (as much as he would let me) in his care.##imported-begin##Dr. Elliott Stein, Assoc. in Cardio. “ My sincere sympathy on the passing on to the kingdom of Paul. I can just hear him asking all the questions that he wanted some answers to! A good man and, as you said in your note, a "beloved husband". Try to remember that "in death life is not ended it is simply changed" - much comfort in that reality. You both will be together again in the kingdom - something wonderful to look forward to. My prays and masses for you both.##imported-begin##Mr. Mark O'Connor, SA##imported-end##

“ My Brother Paul was my BIG brother in so many ways - He had a over-sized heart for the people in his life. He was God loving, good humored, and a big Teddy Bear. He was devoted to Gerry and his friends. He loved to tease people, play games sometimes to the point that upset people (like me) but that was fun too. I will miss him so much. His, laugh, his big bear hugs and his embrace of love. I know Paul that you are rejoicing in heaven with Jesus, Mom and Dad and all the others. Hope to get another big hug from you again some day, All my love, Sis##imported-begin##Cecelia Wimsatt##imported-end##

“ Paul was my adopted uncle and a very dear friend. He was a very talented woodworker. A very spiritual person that would do anything for you. this past christmas, my dad, his best friend, was complaining that in his 71 years, he never saw santa on xmas eve. Paul showed up at our house dressed as santa - and even brought a reindeer! just to make his friend smile. we will miss you so much.###imported-begin###Debbie Koenig###imported-end###
