“ Fate brought us together and Peggy was a sister by heart to me . She was a good person to everyone she meet she accepted me as I was. We would go to the Women's Bible class after our rt and she knew about the Lord and inspired me . She was there for me at my worst times and good times she knew the right thing to say. Throughout life you meet that one person you could talk to and tell them anything and she never judged. She was the most humble person I had ever met always caring about the welfare of others like delivering boxes of food for the holidays and on her breaks from the bus she would go to her moms and would call to see how I was doing. To call Peggy a giver doesn't do her justice giving was simply part of her nature. My heart physically hurts i will not forget the day she said something was wrong and going to the Dr for test then the bad news Peggy had cancer and it has stolen her from everyone who loved her Peggy was a special and extraordinary person. She never missed an opportunity to encourage me or others. I didn't see her when she got sick like i had hoped but, we talked and laughed she was in good spirits she did tell me it had gotten worse But God was in control and everything was going to be ok she was a very strong woman even faced with such an extreme challenge her faith never wavered
I thank you Peggy for the years of friendship you gave me and that I will always remember
God has you in his arms I have you in my heart and look forward to seeing you again. Tammy Umbower
