To the entire Cox family: Ms. Peggy was the sweetest, most fun lady we've been honored to be around. She always had a smile and shared a warm feeling to all she met. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you during this time and that God has his arms around all of you and shares your grief. But he's glad to have his daughter home with him.

I just saw the post tonight 9/15/14 Monday. I am sorry about your mom. We will be praying for the family. Memories become treasures and they live on. Y'all were very good to take care of her and I know she appreciated it.

To the Cox family: I am saddened to learn of Mrs. Cox's passing, and for my delay in acknowledgement. I was online tonight for a different death and Mrs. Peggy's obituary was one of the results from my search. I loved visiting with both her and Mr. Bud every chance I got...the Sunday dinners, and family reunions especially. I am regretful I was not aware of their passing as well as not being available to offer support to you as a family during that time. I send love and hugs to each of you and pray you and yours are doing well. May God's peace be upon you. With much love, Janet Creech

“ Aunt Peggy was a quiet gentle person who along with Uncle Bud had a wonderful family. To my cousins I send you my deepest sympathy. I will always remember your dear sweet mother as having a smile for everyone she met. I will treasure my memories of her.

“ Aunt Peggy, I know you are the best biscuit maker on earth. Now you can be the chief biscuit baker for the angels. It will be a big job to watch over all your children, grandchildren and greatgrandchildren.....but you know what they say... "A woman's work is never done"
