“ We love you Peggy and always looked forward to the holidays when you might come visit with our family. Beth is a doll and she is a great wife to our brother. Taylor is so smart. We have enjoyed blending our families. My Mom, Eve, will miss you. You were both becoming great girlfriends! Rest in Peace. “ Doug, Mike, Patricia & Beth,

Very sorry about your the loss of your Mother. I am deeply saddened, but at the same time blessed with so many fond memories of our Aunt Peggy. One of the best times were when she surprised my mother, Sandy, at a few of her birthdays. The joyful tears in their eyes made the day and, of course, they were inseparable. I was always excited when Aunt Peggy visited us in Green Bay and the other trips to New Jersey and Arizona.

I will truly miss your Mother and forever grateful for those good times. I look forward to continuing those good times with future visits to you all as the memories will radiate smiles and laughter.

Love to you all and I will see you soon Aunt Peggy!!

Love, Jackie###imported-begin##Jackie Madsen###imported-end##

“ Miss Peggy was the first person we saw when Ken had his accident. She jumped right in and was there to help everyone. Then when we had the picnic Noah's ark she so much enjoyed the kids and just being herself. She laughed and talked about the old days. She was such a beautiful person and will be missed.##imported-begin##Don and Donna Shipp##imported-end##
