“ Mother:

I find much comfort and joy knowing where you are - safe, sound and in the arms of God.

You blessed many during your time on earth - evidenced by your many loved friends at your touching service.

This comfort for you does not fill the emptiness in my heart, as I miss you today and will as long as I live.

Thank you for everything you did for me and our family.

I love you dearly forever and ever.

Your Son,

“ To my dear cousins Lisa, Paula, Scotty and Kathy...my thoughts are of you all...

Dear Aunt Peggy,

*How I wish I could have seen you once again. Even though we had not seen each other for some time and had lost contact for a while, I thought of you from time to time and recalled precious memories of you. I remember spending some summer days with all of you in Georgia but became so homesick (for my daddy and mama) I had to go home early. I remember going to Bible School those few days and one of my favorite memories is you playing the piano and singing. I feel blessed to have had you in my life. With love,

“ Momma,

There is nothing in this world that could ever replace what you and I had, and I am so blessed that all of our memories are wrapped in my heart forever.

Our Lord has allowed me glimpses of your beautiful smile, as well as the joy you are experiencing while dancing in His presence! I know you are a key part in that heavenly choir, and that you are overjoyed at the pleasure of being reunited with so many that went before you.

I will carry out the ministry He called me to, and some of it will be done in your honor. I am proud of you and the way you served so many while you were here.

I am receiving so much from heaven, on your behalf, and I thank you and our God for everything; the love I feel, the direction, tucking me in, and encouraging me onward.

In closing, I look forward to the day when I get to dance with you, like we did in your first pair of jeans and boots in 1979.

Your loving daughter, still wanting to make you laugh,

*Lisa Head Echols###imported-begin###Your daughter & family,
