“ Forgive my lateness in giving my sympathies but I just asked about him and heard he had passed away, he was a very good man. He was soft spoken, kind and loving. He was the biggest Spartan fan I have ever known. We met at a Alumni Association Game Watch, as always he was the first to arrive and we sat together. We dated for a few years but when his mother got sick he stepped in to help her, driving every weekend to Cookeville to spend time with her. He had promised his dad, we would watch over her and he did till she passed away. We drifted apart.. Anyone who knew Phil, like him. He was very smart and extremely hard working. I wore the ring he gave me today. I will miss you Phil, See if you can't work some magic on the Spartans from heaven. I love you..
