

Phil Rizan

November 17, 1956 - December 25, 2015

Philip J. Rizan, age 59, of Loganville, Georgia, passed away on Friday December 25, 2015. Phil was born in Ft. Worth, Texas as the son of Philip L. Rizan and Patsy Rizan Sisson. He grew up in here in Roswell and was a 1975 graduate of Roswell High. After high school, Phil went to trade school to become an A&P mechanic. He had a very long and successful career as a Regional Representative for two major helicopter companies, where he travelled extensively and made many great friends along the way. Phil is survived by his daughter, Kristin Rizan, of Hayden, Idaho, his big sister Laurie Rizan of Alpharetta, Georgia, the love of his life, Ceil Jarrett of Berkeley Lake, Georgia, three cherished aunts and lots of really great cousins. Preceding him in death were his Mom and Dad and his oldest sister, Theresa Rizan. He will be laid to rest next to his beloved Dad at South Park Cemetery. A Celebration of Phil's life was held on December 29th in Georgia.
