“ I came to know Phil at Rockwell and marveled at his genuine caring about others. Whenever I hear O Holy Night, I think of him and the Rockwell choir. Brenda and family, please accept my deepest and sincere sympathy. How appropriate that he will be singing with God's angels during these sacred days leading up to Resurrection Sunday.

“ *Dear Brenda, Jeremy, Jonah and Sissy and family,
My heart is broken for your loss. Phillip was a wonderful friend and coworker! He was very hard working, very intelligent, trust worthy, loved his family and loved Jesus! He had a wonderful way of making other people feel special! He was so friendly to everyone! He loved to talk especially about his loving wife, his children, his grandchildren and life on the farm. It was so nice to have someone in the office to talk with about my faith and the teachings of the bible. He often made me smile. When someone asked how he was doing, he always responded, "Marrrr-velous!" Whenever I told him, "see you tomorrow", he responded, "The Good Lord willing!" I will dearly miss hearing all about his Mama's flowers and seeing pictures of the beautiful blossoms! He was a treasure of a man, whose memory I will always hold dearly in my heart! I'm praying for your family! With Love, “ Phillip was above all a very good man and Godly man. Proud of his family and the life he lead. He wad a good friend and a good mason. Phillip will be missed but he is in a better place in a house not made of hands but by our Heavenly Father.

“ I grew up with Phillip. We were members of the same church, that we were raised in, Lenora. Our families often visited each other to make oyster or salmon stew, then make homemade ice cream. We always made two freezers because one just wasn't enough. We had so many good times together and went from 1st grade through high school together. I certainly will miss my friend that is more like family.💔

I was privileged to get to know Phil from his directing the Rockwell/Boeing singers every Christmas. He will be greatly missed here by everyone who knew him but now he's singing in the heavenly choirs. Phil will be greatly missed by everyone who knew him!

“ Brenda & Family, I am so in shock and my heart hurts right along with you all. Been there and know how painful it is. Phillip was a good friend to Mike and me. I loved working with him in scouts and reading all his posts on FB. He cared so much for others and was always asking for prayers and thoughts and concern for those he knew. I just can't get over losing him too soon. Know you and the family are in my heart and prayers. He loved his family dearly!

“ My sisters and I bought ribs and Brunswick stew from Phillip a few years ago when I attended one of the class reunions there. Phillip could not attend because he was making stew! I'm glad I got to see him one last time. I took the ribs and stew back to south Georgia and my whole family got to enjoy it with me before I came back to CO. Phillip was a regular poster on Facebook and I will miss reading his posts. I am so sorry that his time on this earth has ended so soon!

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. Phillip was a great guy! We worked together in Duluth at Rockwell. He had exceptional work ethic and a love for the Lord! I will always remember him lifting his voice in praise across the production floor, and singing Christmas carols as we were allowed to do back in those days. I don't have words that can help ease the pain of your loss but pray the comforter will embrace the family and bring fond memories of all great time you shared over the years. - Joel Timms
