“ Phyllis, my sister-in-law, was a lovely woman. She was a gentle soul who had the heart of a Proverbs 31 woman. She was wise, kind and caring. She loved her family.

Randy and Yvonne ~ I do not have adequate words to ease the pain. I just want you to know that She's not gone. She has just gone home Please remember her death not as an end, but as a beginning. I think Seneca said it better than I ever could when he said, "The day which we fear as our last is but the birthday of eternity."

Love and hugs to you both and to both of your families. Prayers for comfort are being going out now.

*Love,
Tammy Gardiner*
