I can not call you or pick up the phone & it be you calling me almost every week & oh how much I miss that. We could talk & laugh so much on the phone & I loved talking about memories of many ago. You used to ask me how did I remember so much from so long ago. When I felt down you would quote scriptures to help me. You were the most loving, kind friend anyone could ever ask for. You kept your faith no matter what came your way. It is so hard to get used to you not being here but I no without a doubt that you are celebrating in heaven with your sweet mom & dad. You will always be missed but May so many fond memories carry me through as you come to my mind. Love you Phyllis. Best friend anyone could ever ask for. Myra
