“ April, We were saddened to learn of the great loss of your sweet Mother. After meeting Phyllis and Homer at church mid-1980's, we enjoyed a wonderful, long friendship and made many special memories. Phyllis loved God, her family, her church and she loved life! She and Homer enjoyed traveling and she loved ladies' retreats and church activities. Phyllis had a heart for ministry and her soft-spoken demeanor did not keep her from seeking opportunity to proclaim and share her great Faith in God. Always remember her love and hold her close in your heart. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. With love and deep sympathy.
