“ Sorry for the loss of your loved one. Times like these we wonder does God care.. I hope you find comfort in God's word the bible. God promises a time when "death will be no more"(Rev 21:4). Jesus taught that by means of God's kingdom.(Matt 6:9,10), the resurrection is a sure hope for those that have died, and they have a hope of living forever on a paradise earth. (Psalms 37:10,11) For more spiritual hope & comfort please go to www.jw.org##imported-begin##cheryl##imported-end##

“ Phyllis was truly an exceptional person. Although we've missed her terribly since she moved from Mississippi, it is wonderful that she spent the last part of her life with her family. It made her so happy to be home. We loved her so much and will always consider her part of our family. We will miss her, but are so happy that one day we'll see her again and then we'll be together forever. "And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away." (Revelation 21:4 NKJV). Have fun dancing around God's throne Phyllis. Save us a good spot. We love you!###imported-begin##Rick and Erinne Southard###imported-end##

“ Tabby,
I'm sending daily prayers up for strength and peace for you, your sister, and the rest of your family. I am truly sorry for your loss. Your momma could sure make anybody laugh with her sense of humor. You have so many people who love you and your family. I know they will join me and we will ask for Him to comfort you and love on you every day and night for as long as you need it. You have been a source of comfort and encouragement for so many, let us return the favor and tell us when you need the extra support. Giant Hugs sweet friend when you read this!
