

Pradeep Tamang

April 8, 2000 - February 1, 2026

Pradeep was born on April 8, 2000, in Jhapa, Nepal. He was a bright, ambitious, and intelligent young man with a deep passion for learning and service. He resettled to the United States in 2008, where he continued to build a life rooted in dedication and purpose. He graduated from Akron Early College High School in 2019, earning both his high school diploma and an Associate Degree in Arts. He went on to graduate from the University of Akron in 2021 with a bachelor's degree in National Security, followed by a Master of Arts in Political Science in Security Studies in 2023. After completing his education, Pradeep began his career as a private investigator before transitioning to a correctional officer position at Dauphin County Jail. In 2024, he officially began his law enforcement career and graduated from the police academy in May 2025. Pradeep absolutely loved being a police officer and took great pride in his work. He was always excited to share his experiences and stories, and he genuinely looked forward to going to work each day. Serving and protecting the community meant a lot to him. Outside of work, Pradeep enjoyed playing video games, reading, and watching videos on social media. His favorite color was orange, and he loved drinking Coke and enjoying good food. He had a deep love for animals and dreamed of one day opening an animal sanctuary. He was naturally curious, passionate about learning new things, and enjoyed building and creating. Pradeep had plans to further his education by pursuing a PhD and hoped to expand his service through the military and, one day, a career in politics. Though his life was far too short, Pradeep lived with purpose, ambition, and heart. His dedication, kindness, and dreams will always be remembered. A Funeral Service will be held at 12Stone Church, Lawrenceville, Georgia on Saturday February 7, 2026 at 10:00 AM. Arrangements by Tim Stewart Funeral Home, 300 Simonton Road SW, Lawrenceville, Georgia 30046. 770.962.3100. Please sign the online guest registry at www.stewartfh.com.
