“ Granddaddy will be greatly missed. Most of all I will miss his humble and Christlike ways, he was always an honest man, who followed the Lord. In my eyes there was/is no better christian than him. I will miss his stories of the olden days of Gwinnett County, before Gwinnett became the Gwinnett I've known, he grew up in Gwinnett and watched it turn into what it is today. When the only court house was on the square and they had to travel by horse or walk to get anywhere. I will miss his stories of his childhood and hunting. I will miss his cooking, most of all his fried okra, deer steaks and biscuits, pecan pie and the best rice crispy treats anyone could make. I will miss his prayers at holidays and dinners. I will miss the joy in his eyes when we always came for a visit. He was a kind man who never complained, who never spoke an ill word toward anyone. He seemed to always get a kick out of the kids and I rough housing around even, didn't seem to ever irritate him much. Granddaddy will be missed seems like an understatement.

Granddaddy you are with your maker now, you have joined granny and daddy. I hope you have been able to throw a line or two in with daddy and walk a river bank. I hope you can look down on us and feel proud of the way we continue to live out our days. Tell daddy I love and miss him so much. We will all miss you so much, its amazing that 97 can sound like a long time, you lived a long and beautiful life, but I would like for you to still be here with us. Until we meet again, granddaddy go rest easy.

With love
your youngest granddaughter & family

“ To Dennis and the Freeman Family: Bent was a great neighbor and a good man. He and Geneva took me to church with them when I was younger. Bent was always kind and offered many smiles and nice words over the years. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers. May God's Love and Mercy comfort you at this time.

Mr. Freeman was a sweet man. He loved God he loved his family and he was a friend to all. One of my favorite memories is of him telling about his hunting dog. He was so cute telling the story. My condolences to Dennis and the rest of the family. In loving memory of Mr. Bent Freeman.

*Granddaddy,
I will miss you so much. Your life is a shining example of the way God intended a husband, father and grandfather to be. Thank you for your influence on my life. It is something I will never forget. You left behind beautiful memories of a long life of happiness. Until we meet again.
Your loving granddaughter,
Laura*
