“ Years have separated us from our roots at Forrest Hills Baptist Church in Decatur, the memories on Lowrance Drive, 2 doors up from the Bonner's lived Clift & Rachel Whitman we ran from one house to the other, played in the streets there and then would get more adventurous and walk over to The Booth's, a couple streets over, I think Judylyn. Those days when our only concern was when the church doors opened next. Thanks Rachel for making The Kennedy's welcomed. The last time I saw you, you invited me to your church, that you emphatically stated "I love my church, and you will too". Receive your crown from your Lord, you helped and loved so many. Praying for each of her boys and their families.
