“ Ralph and I didn't know each other, but in a way he felt like family. I moved to Monroe three years ago, and quickly grew fond of “the man who always waves as I drive past”. Almost every day on my way home from work, I'd pass Ralph. He'd be sitting in his swing waving at every car that passed by. I never stopped to say hi, and I never sent him a letter in the mail like I always wanted to, but I always wanted to tell Ralph how much I appreciated this little gesture of kindness each day. Ralph made my day just by sharing his sweet smile and a wave. This little gesture could brighten even the darkest days, and for that I will always be grateful. I pray for peace for the family.
