“ I am saddened to hear of Ralph's passing. I know for sure he is in a better place now. My thoughts and prayers go out to all the Landress family. I will always remember our days with the Thompsons bird hunting in Nebraska. I will also always remember him being the first person to come to my side when I was saved at the altar at Yellow River Baptist Church. He was a good man and I look forward to seeing him again on the other side.
