“ *Dear Etheridge Family,
My wife and I enjoyed visiting Ed many times in his home and at the care-facility there off of Hwy 316. For a number of years we visited with him and read the bible with him and shared the wonderful hope the bible offers of a future time when sickness and death will be done away with. He often talked about the loss of his son in that terrible accident, and of course of missing Betty. We did our best to be positive with him and show him of our love and concern for him. He was just a very kind and gentle man - we will miss talking to him. The last few times we saw him in his room there - we're not sure he knew us, but he still smiled! Although we do not know his family - we're sure you must be equally as nice and kind - it's probably a family trait! Please accept our deep condolences, we want you to know we thought he was a beautiful person!
