“ Randall will be missed by his community of home. His last trip to the hospital he kept saying, I just want to go home so I can be with my family and friends. He made his dream come true and made it back to his house. Sheila is a pillar of strength and is the strongest woman I know. She gave him care and unconditional love. He told us Friday night before he died, "I will get up and walk" and now his dream has come true to do this in heaven. God placed a good friend, good cousin, and a good man in heaven, may God take care of our sorrow and rejoice for Randall is not in pain anymore and is talking with friends that are already in heaven.
