“ Rodney and Family,

I am shocked to learn about your Dad. I have been away from the circle and didn't know about his being ill. Know I hold you all as good friends. Your Dad was always kind to me! I will have your family in my prayers.

God Bless,

“ I wanted to let you know my families thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. Randy was a fine man and always very generous. Over the year's I know he has touched many people lives in a positive way through his work. I always enjoyed the time working at R&R. Especially the surprise when Wanda would bring us Waffles in the mornings. He will be missed and I am sorry that I am out of town and could not come to pay my respects. Your family has truly been in my thoughts and prayers since finding out last night. I am sorry for your loss. Shawn & Amy Crook##imported-begin##Shawn Crook ##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry. Randy was a great man who has helped me over many years. Of course that is nothing new to you as you know he was inclined to help anyone he could. One of my fondest memories was drinking a long island ice tea with him several years ago at Jeckyll Island when we showed off the new Shepherd High Tech Van. I will always remember the help and support and friendship that Randy extended to me. He was truly a great man. I will miss him.
Sincerely,
John.##imported-begin##John Anschutz##imported-end##
