“ With tender regards regarding Mr. Franklin. May the caring thoughts of others help you and your family through this difficult time. Also, may you endure these days with the help of Almighty God who is there to provide both comfort and hope (John 11:25) to help you cope daily. Our loved ones never leave the special place they hold in our heart.##imported-begin##A.D. Kindred##imported-end##

“ Dear Karen,
I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your dear husband.
The sudden loss of a loved one is heartbreaking. That is understandable because death is an enemy and it's sting is painful. It is comforting to know that the Bible offers hope of seeing our deceased loved ones again. (John chapter 5 verses 28 & 29). My thoughts are with you and your family.##imported-begin##Barbara Rivers##imported-end##

“ Drew and family - Words can not express how sorry I am for your loss. Mr. Franklin was a great, honorable man who left the world too soon. His smile and laughter lit up the room. He will be missed by all - yet his memory will live in our hearts forever. Our thoughts are with all of you.

Love you, Steph & Bryan##imported-begin##Stephanie & Bryan

“ Dear Karen and family,

I was so sad to learn of your loss . Ray and I worked together at Foremost and, later, for a short time at Platinum where he assisted in documentation of a computer system.

He will always be remembered by his happy, bright smile and genuine caring of other people.

Our love to you and all your family as well as our prayers for everyone.

Sincerely,

“ Karen,
We were shocked to hear of Ray's death and want you to know you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. Ray was a gentleman of the old school and yet was also a very modern man. He always was kind to us and a pleasure to talk with. If there is something we can do, you have only to ask. Please give our sincerest sympathies to your and Ray's family. Bless you.##imported-begin##Lyza & Jay Sandgren##imported-end##
