

Ray Clinton "Clint" Wood Jr.

July 7, 1941 - August 3, 2025

Ray Clinton "Clint" Wood, Jr., age 84, passed away peacefully on August 3, 2025, surrounded by his loving family. We rejoiced, cried, prayed and sang to him as he left this world of pain into a place of peace with no suffering or pain. He was a happy loving man who had many friends and loved ones. If you were around him you would always hear his laugh and feel his love for people. He was a Baptist preacher for as long as his body gave him strength, but even after that he continued to share his love for the Lord with all who knew him throughout his life.

He spent many years working at General Motors and outside of that job, he was a skilled farrier and had a deep love for horses.

He started in his younger years showing and training horses and then competing in barrel racing up until his senior years.

His life was marked by strength, dedication, and a kind heart. His legacy lives on through the many lives he touched.

He will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.

A Funeral Service will be held at 4:00 PM on Sunday, August 10, 2025, at Ewing Chapel Baptist Church 1777 Ewing Chapel Rd, Dacula GA 30019 with Rev. Billy Holloway and L.C. Givens officiating. “ I met Clint when I began dating his uncle Loyd. I think Clint and I were both in high school that year. The family had gathered at the grandparents home for Christmas. Over the years, our families visited often and my daughter liked going to their farm to ride horses with his kids.

When he met and married Elaine, my husband Loyd did the ceremony. Then we had two Elaine Woods in the family myself and Clint's wife. We kept in touch often meeting for dinner until after my husband Loyd passed away.

I recently got his number from a mutual friend and he and I talked several times. I knew he was in bad health but he still had that cheerful spirit and deep faith in God.

Sending special thoughts to his daughter Becky and wife Elaine the last ones I know in the family, even though there are lots of grandchildren, nieces, and nephews.

Rest in peace Clint for a life well lived.

“ I told Clint this the last time I saw him. I am one of thousands who he led to the Lord, he instilled the love of God in my heart and salvation in my soul. When he baptized me in that lake it was forever. I look forward to greeting him in Heaven. As a child I spent many days and nights in his home and his love was abundant. Becky I am so sorry, this world has lost a true wonder of a man. A twinkle in his heart and a joke on his lips, is how I will always remember him.

“ Uncle Clinton the memories I have of you are all love, laughter, family, God, and horses. Your beautiful prayers over our food before every family get together always touched my heart. You have left a forever impact on my life and so many others. I know you and Daddy are sharing stories and laughing as you always did.
