“ I grew up in doraville, and as a child I remember my neighbors name was ray deaton...I'm pretty sure this is the same ray..I was about 6 when they moved..son was mark whom I watched cartoons at his house..sister was older...I'm so sry for your loss...mr. Deaton was a sweet man...I grew up on fla. Ave where I knew all my neighbors...I learned to ride my bike in your yard...mr..deaton helped me..I'm 48 now..living in sugar hill....my condolences to you all....the year I met was 1968.. Memories of cartoons, batman, at your house... mrs. Deaton and family are in my prayers...mr. Mrs. Hawk lived next door also...you may not remember me but, I do you...may god keep you all...##imported-begin##Patti moore##imported-end##

“ Dear Faye and Family,
My heart is so heavy grieving with you but I rejoice knowing we will have a joyous homecoming with Ray and all our beloved someday. Ray was so kind and such a caring soul. He always asked about my Boys, and wanted to know how I was, even when he wasn't feeling well himself. He also knew when I would smile and say I am "fine", when I really wasn't "fine". Such a dear man, I love him and I love you all.. Faye, I love you... Thank you for being so dear to me and for the ministry you and Ray have lovingly given to my family! I love you, I grieve and rejoice with you! Debbie Showalter##imported-begin##Debbie Showalter##imported-end##
