

Rebecca "Becca" Ann Thomas Doss

July 4, 1986 - August 14, 2024

Rebecca "Becca" Ann Thomas Doss was born on a sunny Friday afternoon, on the Fourth of July, 1986, in Scottsboro, Alabama. Her entrance into this world proved turbulent, as did the ultimate course of her life. Becca was a fiercely independent daughter, a staunchly devoted mother to two sons, and a dedicated sister to four other siblings. Despite many sorrows, challenges, and setbacks, she worked tenaciously to support and provide for all the needs of her children, for whom she was passionately protective, until her last day.

On another Friday, August 9, 2024, Becca suddenly collapsed at home, from a catastrophic hemorrhagic stroke that took her life. The nursery rhyme "Monday's Child" says, "Friday's child is loving and giving," and in her departure from this life, Becca proved the truth of this. For you see, Becca had made the choice to be an organ donor, if anything should ever chance to happen to her. In her passing, Becca was able to generously give the gift of life and sight to many other people. On Wednesday, August 14, 2024, Becca passed away.

And so, as we sorrow together in a time of profound grief, loss, and pain, we choose to honor and remember Becca, her memory, and her legacy, and we pause to reflect on the good memories that can never be taken away. Becca will forever be remembered for the life she lived, but more so, for the renewed life she gifted to so many others as she departed this life.

Becca was a long-term night manager at International House of Pancakes. She is survived by her two sons, Xander and Bryce; grandmother and namesake, Ann Thomas; father, Mark Thomas; stepmother, Cheri Thomas; biological mother, Jan Miller; siblings, Marie Brock-Smith (nieces and nephews Brandon, Klark, David, Syler, Emma, and Mila), Amy Theimer, Jared Thomas (John Wood), and Joel Thomas (Hayley, and nephew Bennett), as well as many aunts, uncles, cousins, coworkers and friends.

A Memorial Service in honor of Becca's life will be held on Sunday, August 18, 2024, from 3:00 PM - 7:00 PM at Generation Church, 1949 Highway 81, Suite 300, Loganville, GA, 30052.
