FOUCHER – Rebecca Marie

On Friday, January 13, our beloved wife, mother, daughter, sister made her way to Heaven. She is preceded by her father, David Foucher, and survived by her mother, Laurel Beehler.

Rebecca was a loving mother to Maggie, Aly, and Wes, who were her whole world. She planned each birth down to the date, and loved being a mom. She recently became a grandmother to a beautiful girl, Olivia.

Rebecca and Debbie experienced a wonderful 10 years together. They loved family life with Wesley and step granddaughter, Aleigha. Their mission was to build family memories with the kids, and raise them with love and the strength to take risks. They have grown to become amazing and kind human beings.

Rebecca is survived by siblings Erin Hudler (Casey Hudler), Jonathan Foucher (Katie Foucher), and Maggie Potter (Joe Potter). She is also survived by nephews Austyn Smith, Bailey Smith, Aiden Smith, and Gabe Foucher, and nieces Shea Irvin and Marissa Foucher.

Rebecca recently graduated from Gwinnett College with a degree in business administration. She loved her job and the people and camaraderie made with the company.

She also had so many friends, coworkers, neighbors, and extended family that she loved dearly.

“ For the past couple of years, Aleece and I were next-door neighbors to Rebecca. She was always so kind to us and always willing to help. We really enjoyed every time we got to talk to her. Our neighborhood and lives are poorer without her. We send all our love to Debbie, Wesley, and all her lovely family and close friends, and we grieve her loss with you all.

“ I've been sitting here for hours trying to find the words to say goodbye, and a memory to share. You've been my Becca for over 30 years, how do I do that?
Church with your dad, sneaking out of the house, broken hearts over the years until we both found our person (Thank you Debbie for loving her), Auntie Becca to my kids (Spring Break at Auntie Becca's is still our favorite vacation), and so much more. You made the world a better place, and my heart is broken that you're gone.
Love you always
