A long time friend of our family from childhood days forward, many fond memories here in this life, but moving to the greatest life there is. “ Of my dear friend and his family, Cedric has always been dear to my heart. He took me down in the liquid grave at the age of ten and that meant we would have a special bond for all these years. His cheerful attitude and love of God was very contagious and endearing to all that knew him. To his precious wife and family we love you and you are in our prayers.
