“ One of my favorite memories with Aunt Rhoda was how we used to scare each other and then laugh so hard afterward. Those moments of fun and laughter are what I'll always carry with me.

Love you, Aunt Rhoda.

“ My Tribute to Aunt Rhoda

As we celebrate the life of my Aunt Rhoda, our hearts are heavy with grief, yet also filled with gratitude for the time we were blessed to share with her.

To me, she wasn't just an aunt, she was a mentor, a provider, and a mother.

She had a beautiful way of making everyone feel welcome, and I was no exception.

She taught us by example, reminding us that family is not only the people we are born to but also the ones we choose to nurture, support, and hold close.

I often think of the moments we shared, the meals, the conversations, the lessons, and the countless small acts of kindness that may have gone unnoticed but were never unappreciated. These are the treasures I will carry with me always.

My aunt possessed a quiet strength that always inspired me. Even in the most difficult times, she carried herself with grace. Though I wish we had more time with her, I take comfort in knowing that her spirit lives on, in her children, her grandchildren, her nieces and nephews, and in all of us. Every time we show kindness, every time we lift someone up, and every time we choose love over anger, we honor her memory.

Aunt Rhoda, thank you for the love you gave, the lessons you taught, and the example you set. You were a light in our family, and now we will carry that light forward.

Rest well Aunty, your love lives on in all of us.
